Why Become Certified?

In the Simplest Terms...

Internal auditors seek the Certified Internal Auditor certification to:

- Enhance credibility and respect.
- Sharpen skills and proficiencies.
- Increase advancement and earning potential.
- Demonstrate understanding and commitment.

Do you...

have what it takes to be a CIA?

If you do, you are an ideal candidate for the CIA.

Proven Value

*Believe CIA adds value

*CAEs prefer to hire CIAs

More annually for CIAs

* According to a recent IIA survey of audit leaders, 94% value the CIA over CPA/CA, CISA and CFE.

 According to The IIA's 2018 North American Pulse of Internal Audit Survey, 84% believe the CIA brings value to their internal audit work, and 70% of chief audit executives (CAEs) say they prefer to hire candidates with their CIA designation.

 According to The IIA's 2017 Internal Audit Compensation Study (based on U.S. responses), CIAs earn an average of $38,000 more annually than those without a certification.

CIA Renewal Requirement

Each year, CIA certificate holders are required to self-certify as to the completion of the required continuing education hours. It is the CIA's responsibility to assure that the CPE hours attested to conform to the guidelines established by The IIA's Professional Certification Board (PCB). Certification Renewal forms are submitted by CIAs on an annual basis (no later than December 31 each year) and serve as signed statements that all applicable CPE requirements have been met.
